Ivor Davis and Brooke Halpin

Ivor Davis will share an inside view of the U. S. debut tour

For 34 days in 1964, London-born Ivor Davis travelled as a member of the Beatles’ entourage on the band’s first American tour—24 cities. His first-hand accounts of the magic and the madness is the topic of his book, The Beatles and Me on Tour. Ivor will share about his personal experiences on the road, inside their hotel suites, private jets and backstage as the Beatles took America by storm.

In a 50-year journalistic career, British-born, Ventura-based writer Davis has been a foreign correspondent for The London Daily Express and The Times of London. He has traveled throughout the western hemisphere covering riots, floods, earthquakes and politics. He also served 15 years as entertainment columnist for the New York Times Syndicate and as editor for the Los Angeles Magazine. He has lived in Ventura County for almost 40 years.

Brooke Halpin will tour guests through the masterful instrumentation, lyrics and experimental techniques of the Beatles’ American releases from 1964 through 1970.

Brooke Halpin explores the rock covers from which the Beatles launched their careers; the original rock ‘n’ roll and love songs that fueled Beatlemania; and the theatrical, psychedelic, world music and orchestral elements which continually surprised audiences. He’ll add personal vignettes to transport guests back in time to experience the excitement of hearing the Beatles for the first time.

Halpin, a Connecticut native, is an accomplished broadcaster, pianist, composer, painter and published author. Currently, he is the host of the syndicated radio show “Come Together with the Beatles,” on KBUU at 99.1 FM in Malibu and online at www.radiomalibu.net, and also airs on the WROCK Radio Network. He wrote a Beatles quiz book, Do You Really Know The Beatles?; a novel based on a true story, A Magical Mystery Time; and Experiencing the Beatles - A Listener’s Companion, for Rowman & Littlefield Publishers. He has also written many instructional books for piano and has many other noteworthy accomplishments as a composer, television producer and painter.
